Telephone Systems

Leavenworth Online sells and installs most major Voice over IP PBX systems. Utilizing your existing network infrastructure expansing and installation is easy, no separate wiring required. Additional features include integration with VOIP providers, easy installation, remote handset capabilities, and many more.

Please contact us for a Free onsite evaluation!

Leavenworth Online also sells standard PBX systems like the Bizfon 680.

Bizfon 680 Control Unit The Bizfon 680 is the control unit of the Bizfon Telephone System. Its unique combination of call handling, voice mail, remote access and customer care features provides small businesses like yours with the power you need to transform the way you communicate – among your employees and with your customers.

Key Features

- Connects up to 6 telephone lines to a total of 8 physical extensions and fifteen virtual extensions (virtual extensions require an optional voice vault card)
- Voice Mail with 9 private mailboxes and user-friendly automated attendant are built-in as standard features.
- Allows users to mix our BizTouch feature phones with conventional analog, corded and cordless phones.
- Enables users to use any remote telephone as if it were directly connected to the Bizfon System.
- Instant access to the Bizfon Customer Care Center simply by dialing extension 299.
- One Year Warranty and 60 days Help Desk Included.
- Scale the Bizfon incrementally and seamlessly to support your growth, up to 24 telephone lines and 32 extensions.
- Complete Systems start at $1499.00!